

New Beginnings empowers survivors and mobilizes community awareness and action to end domestic violence.

Job Announcement

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE HOPELINE ADVOCATE

This is a remote position. Applicants will need a private, quiet space at home from which to provide confidential advocacy services to program participants.

New Beginnings strives to build a meaningful, welcoming, and equitable workplace, inclusive of diverse voices, experiences, and perspectives. New Beginnings is an equal opportunity employer. Survivors, Black, Indigenous, people of color, and LGBTQIA+ people strongly encouraged to apply.

In New Beginnings' DVHopeline, we offer a variety of supportive services to individuals and families who are building lives free of abuse, or who are seeking support around a current domestic violence situation. We take pride in offering services that focus on healing and empowerment, recognizing how barriers, trauma and its aftermath can affect each person differently.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Provides high quality support and advocacy for survivors and community members on a 24-hour Helpline. Provides advocacy-based online and phone counseling, reflecting a trauma-informed, client-centered, culturally responsive approach and using an anti-oppression lens with survivors and other community callers.

REPORTS TO: DV Hopeline Director

HOURS: Remote Position 2:00PM - 11PM Wednesday through Saturday

COMPENSATION: $27.47 per hour, monthly paid trainings and training allowance; paid leave; retirement contribution. This is a non-exempt position.

WORK DUTIES/ROLE:

Supportive Services

- Staffs a dedicated Help Line schedule, providing domestic violence information, crisis intervention and emotional support, safety planning, risk assessment, initial screening for emergency shelter and other housing services, and resource coordination to callers and community members who reach out to the Helpline via phone call or chat.
- Explores additional service needs of callers and facilitates appropriate referrals to relevant gender-based violence and other organizations.
- Provides information and support to friends, family, employers, human service and medical professionals seeking to support domestic violence survivors.
- Supports callers who have experienced sexual violence or commercial sexual exploitation and refers them to relevant agencies as needed.
- Incorporates survivor-centered, trauma informed and culturally responsive best practices into supportive services.
- Provides healthy relationships information to callers seeking to prevent domestic violence.
- If bi or multi-lingual, provides support in non-English languages to phone and chat callers as needed.

- Helps ensure that services embody anti-oppression principles and promote equity for BIPOC and LGBTQ survivors, and survivors from other traditionally marginalized communities.
- Coordinates interpreter services for Helpline callers as needed.

Data Entry

- Enters consistently complete, accurate and appropriate service data into the agency database.
- Responds to meet data needs identified by the Program Director or data staff.

Community Networking

- Maintains extensive knowledge of community resources for the benefit of survivors.
- Maintains positive working relationships with other domestic violence and service agencies in the community.

Resource Development

- Provides program information and stories as needed by the development team to build donor support and pursue funding opportunities.

Team-Work and Professional Development

- Actively contributes to a positive team environment to ensure the collaboration needed for provision of high-quality services to survivors.
- Participates in all staff meetings, Helpline team meetings, agency retreats, and other activities as required.
- Attends and documents trainings to ensure compliance with Washington Administrative Code training requirements for domestic violence advocates.

Other

- Assists with administrative or other tasks as requested by the Program or Assistant Program Director, exhibiting flexibility and responsiveness to unanticipated needs.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Commitment to the mission of New Beginnings and to the needs to domestic violence survivors.
- Willingness to learn about and promote equity and social justice within and outside of New Beginnings.
- Knowledge of the dynamics of domestic violence and the impact of trauma on survivors and their children. Experience with domestic violence and survivor-centered crisis intervention and support. Related experience in non-domestic violence agency settings will be considered.
- Demonstrated ability to work with diverse survivors in a welcoming, supportive, culturally responsive manner.
- English fluency is required; fluency in one or more of these additional languages is preferred: Spanish, Chinese, Vietnamese, Russian, Ukrainian, Amharic, Somali, Tigrinya, Punjabi, Hindi or other African, Asian and Middle Eastern languages.
- Ability to research a wide range of community resources to meet variable survivor needs.
- Demonstrated ability to attend to detail and ensure follow through.
- Demonstrated ability to be flexible, handle crises and juggle multiple responsibilities in a fast-paced environment.
- Ability to maintain participant confidentiality.
- Ability to represent New Beginnings in a professional manner to community partners and the broader public.
- Ability to use supervision effectively to gain support and enhance performance.
- Ability to engage in constructive self-care activities to manage secondary trauma.
- Proficient with Microsoft Office applications.

New Beginnings values your lived experience. To apply, please send a cover letter detailing any experience related to the job responsibilities and qualifications, resume, and 3 professional references to jobs@newbegin.org. New Beginnings conducts background checks for all positions and will discuss results with applicants as needed. Only complete applications will be given full consideration. Open until filled. Additional agency information is available at www.newbegin.org